

Lost Children

Children that appear to be or claim to be lost will be taken to the Pima County Fair Guest Services Office, located near the Main Gate. Children will be supervised and taken good care of until the parents can be located and/or notified.

To report a lost child, parents can visit either the Pima County Fair Guest Services Office, the fair administration office or the Security Office, located in the same building as Guest Services.