Frequently Asked Questions

When will entry forms be available and due?

Entry forms will be available online September 1, 2018. Entries deadline is March 10, 2019.

Who are the judges?

Judges are selected based on their experience within the category selected.

Why do we need to add the age of the Teen or Youth exhibitor?

Judges need to judge accurately.

How does judging work?

Judging is closed to the public. After all entries have been received and displayed, they will be judged. Judging will be based on the Danish Judging System. All the judging is final. If you are interested in becoming a judge for the Pima County Fair, please contact Julia Heavner the Entries Manager at 520-762-9106.

When will pieces need to be delivered to the Fair?

All the exhibitors are solely responsible for delivering Art Work to the Fairgrounds on Friday, April 12, 2019 3 pm - 7 pm or Saturday, April 13, 2019 10 am - 5 pm.

Is my entry considered Fine Art or Home Art?

Home Art: is a functional art, applied arts, crafts and related items. Its aimed at the homemaker, hobbyist and group organizations.

Fine Art: is any visual art considered to have been created primarily for esthetic, and intellectual purposes and judged for its beauty and meaningfulness. To be successful in his distinction, the Artwork must demonstrate originality, artistic technique, and quality execution.

What are the requirements for my art exhibit?

A qualifying entry must not be larger than 36 inches in any dimension or weigh more than 50 pounds. All Artwork must be framed and wired or if unable to frame must have wire screwed into the frame, ready to hang.

How many pieces am I allowed to enter each year?

Each Artist may enter a maximum of five pieces within each class. Artist is not to exceed 30 total items entered.

Where is my entry display?

The Home Art Gallery is located in the Old Pueblo Conference and Event Center down the hall on the right.

How will I know if I won an award or sold my piece?

Entry's that have been placed or received with honorable mention will be displayed with the appropriate ribbon. If you are an Artist whose piece has been sold, you will be contacted by the Entries Manager.

Will my Entry be placed on Social media or the website?

Yes, it is a possibility that if your Artwork is deemed worthy it will be published.
